

ML in PL Virtual Event

Call for Posters - Terms and Conditions

Rules of contributed posters acceptance to the ML in PL: Virtual Event 2020 and poster competition (hereinafter, the "Rules of Call for Posters")

§ 1. The purpose and scope of the Competition

1. The Call for Posters Competition (hereinafter, the "Competition") aims to disseminate knowledge in the field of data science, machine learning and artificial intelligence by selecting posters to be presented at ML in PL: Virtual Event 2020 and pick the best posters related to these areas.
2. The scope of the Competition includes, but is not limited to:
 - Optimization techniques
 - Computer Vision
 - Natural Language Processing
 - Reinforcement Learning
 - Model interpretation
 - Probabilistic methods
 - Generative models
 - Hyperparameters tuning
 - Business and industrial applications

§ 2. Entities involved in the organisation of the Competition

1. The organizer of the Competition is ML in PL: Virtual Event 2020 (hereinafter, the "Event") committee (<http://virutal-event.mlinpl.org/#organizers>) (hereinafter, the "Organizer").
2. The Call for Posters committee (hereinafter the "Commission") that will include Organizer representants (<http://virutal-event.mlinpl.org/#organizers>).

§ 3. Conditions for taking part in the Competition

1. Only natural persons can participate in the Competition.
2. In order to participate in the Competition, it is necessary to agree to the provisions of the Terms of Participation and to the processing of personal data referred in the Privacy Policy.
3. Participation in the Competition and related data sharing is completely voluntary. The person who joined the Competition (hereinafter, the "Participant") is bound by the terms of the Terms of Participation.

§ 4. The rules and the course of the Competition

1. The Competition will start on 28th of September 2020 and end on 18th of November 2020 (hereinafter, the "Duration of the Competition").
2. The registration for the Competition will be open from 28th of September 2020 to 30th of October 2020.
3. The registration for the Competition takes place via the registration form of Call for Posters available at <http://virtual-event.mlinpl.org> (hereinafter, the "Website").
4. In order to participate in the Competition, the Participant is obliged to submit the registration form through which the Participant provides:
 1. his/her personal data,
 2. title, abstract of poster or talk he/she would like to present,
 3. his/her agreement for the Rules of Call for Posters (consent to the provisions of the Rules of Call for Posters, consent to the processing of personal data for the purposes of the Competition).
5. The Participant declares that the poster he/she would like to present does not contain content that violates the law and does not violate good morals, in particular, does not violate the rights of third parties, does not call for violence, intolerance, vulgarity or advertising content of third parties.
6. Only works related to the subject of the Competition meeting the conditions referred to in the Rules of Call for Posters, for which the Participant holds the copyright, may be submitted to the Competition.
7. The Commission will evaluate the submission and accept posters to be presented at the Event by before 18th of November 2020.
8. The scientific, cognitive and practical values play a key role, in posters acceptance for the Event.
9. Authors of accepted posters will be notified by e-mail and will receive a free Event ticket.
10. The Participation of an accepted poster or talk is obliged to provide a digital version of the poster in JPG, PNG, or PDF format and video no longer than 5 minutes in MP4 format by the 10th of December 2020 (hereinafter, the "Competition Work"). Posters and videos will be available for participants during the Event.
11. The presentation of posters will take place on the 18th of December 2020 during the Event.

§ 5. Awards

1. During the Event the competition for the Best Poster Audience Award will be held.
2. The Best Poster Audience Award would be settled by voting contest. Every single participant of the Event would have three votes to indicate the three best (different) posters. The number of collected votes would determine the winners of the Best Poster Audience Award.
3. The Participants that are authors of the three posters with the highest number of votes (hereinafter, the "Winners") will be awarded with a free ticket to feature ML in PL Conference sponsored by the Organizer.

4. The Winners will be announced by 19th of December. The Winners will be notified by e-mail.
5. It is not possible to transfer the right to the prize to third parties. In the event of the Winner's resignation from the Award, the Organizer reserves the right to award the prize to another Participant, who is the author of unawarded poster with the next highest number of votes.
6. The Organizer has the right to verify the personal details of the Winners at the time of issuing the prize, in order to identify the Winner, as well as to confirm his age. Before the prize is awarded, the Winner may be obliged to present an appropriate document.

§ 6. The rights and obligations of the Organizer

1. The Organizer reserves the right to exclude from participation in the Competition or deprive the Prize of Participants whose actions are contrary to the law, good practices or the Terms of Participation, in particular, Participants who:
 1. do not act in person, but by third parties;
 2. if in relation to their Competition Work, third party claims have been filed, in particular regarding the dissemination of the image of a person recorded in the Competition Work or infringement of copyright.
2. In order to clarify doubts related to the Participant's activity in the Competition, the Organizer may contact the Participant using the communication methods he has provided (eg to conduct e-mail correspondence); during such contact, the Organizer may expect the Participant to provide detailed information about his participation in the Competition.

§ 7. Intellectual property rights to submitted works

1. Taking part in the Competition, the Participant simultaneously declares that he is the creator of the Competition Work, within the meaning of the Act of 4 February 1994 on copyright and related rights (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 880 with later amendments; hereinafter, the "Act") and that he is entitled to full author's property rights to the Competition Work along with any permits to disseminate the image of the Participant and third parties recorded on the submitted Competition Work.
2. The Organizer, in exchange for the right to participate in the Competition, acquires from the Participant the right to use, on a non-exclusive license, the entries submitted by the Participant as part of the Competition, as works within the meaning of the Act, to conduct the Competition, promote the Competition and own promotion and permit for dissemination of fragments of the Work for a period of 3 years from the selection of the Competition Winners, subject to the preservation of the right to the priority of publication of the Work by the university on which the Competition Work was created, resulting from Art. 15a of the Act.
3. The Organizer is entitled to exercise the dependent rights to the Competition Winner Work, i.e. to make any changes and modifications at Work in whole or in part and to make its development in whole or in part, including making alterations, changes and adaptations of all or individual parts of the Work, and allowing such modifications, changes and developments, also by entities third, as well as the use of such changes, modifications and studies, also by third parties in order to conduct the Competition, promote the Competition and self-promotion for a period of 3 years from the selection of the winners of the Competition.

4. The Organizer is entitled to use the image of the Participant and other persons recorded in the Competition in a manner enabling the use of Work in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of Call for Posters.
5. The Participant declares that he has read the purpose set out in the Rules of Call for Posters for which the awarded Competition Works will be used and that he consents to such use of the Competition Works by the Organizer. If necessary, the Winner, at the request of the Organizer, will sign appropriate declarations or agreements confirming the transfer of copyrights to the awarded Works or the opportunity to use the image of natural persons fixed on the Labor.
6. The Participant bears full responsibility towards the Organizer in the case of third parties making claims for liability in connection with the use by the Organizer of Competition Works, to which he has acquired the rights pursuant to the Rules of Call for Posters.
7. Due to the fact that the result of participation in the Competition may be awarding the prize to the Participant on the terms described in the Rules of Call for Posters, no additional remuneration is due for granting a license or transfer of rights.

§ 8. Processing of personal data

1. The details concerning processing of Participant's personal data are described in the Terms of Participation.

§ 9. Complaints

1. Each Participant has the right to submit complaints in the duration of the Competition and after its completion, within 30 days from the end of the Competition.
2. Complaints should be reported only to the e-mail address callforposters@mlinpl.org with the note Complaint.
3. Complaints will be considered by the Organizer within 14 working days from the date of their receipt. The Participant will be informed about the Organizer's decision by e-mail or registered mail sent to the address provided in the complaint.
4. The complaint should include the name, surname, address of the person submitting the complaint and a description of the reasons or reasons for the complaint as well as the expected method of its consideration.